

S&H Trading Investment Limited– CSR Education Support Initiative

S&H Trading Investment Limited Sierra Leone is pleased to announce the successful donation and installation of a Starlink satellite internet system for the Year 1 Master of Laws (LLM) class at Fourah Bay College, University of Sierra Leone.

At S&H, we believe that high speed connectivity is the backbone of modern education. By providing world class internet access to postgraduate law students, we are equipping the next generation of legal professionals with unrestricted access to global research platforms, digital libraries, and seamless online learning. Access to reliable, highspeed information is not only a cornerstone of academic excellence but also a catalyst for innovation and professional growth.

This contribution, delivered under our Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) program, is designed to strengthen legal education and empower future leaders. Through enhanced connectivity, we aim to:

- Enable seamless access to global legal research and digital libraries
- Support high-definition online lectures and multimedia learning
- Enhance student engagement through a modern, technology-driven academic environment
- Boost student morale and equip learners with the tools required to excel in their academic pursuits

We extend our sincere appreciation to the Head of Department, Mr. Rashid Dumbuya Esq., for the warm reception and collaborative spirit.

S&H Limited remains steadfast in its commitment to improving educational outcomes across Sierra Leone through impactful and strategic CSR initiatives. We will continue to support institutions and communities in building a more connected, informed, and empowered society.
